“ Shirley, I was so sorry to get James' e-mail this morning regarding Robert's death. I still see him as he was when we were going through Aunt Dixie's things and going up the road to dinner! -- or staying at her house for potato soup. I enjoyed hearing the stories of the camp and the fun you had there, as well as the stories of your cats, and all the other stories we shared. I treasure those memories as I had an opportunity to really get to know what wonderful people you both were. May God bless you now and give you courage and strength in the days ahead. I love you, Nancy Griffin-Pyle

“ I will always think of Robert at camp--helping in the kitchen, sitting around talking with the guys, and, most of all, playing 42. Though he taught me how to play, I was never any good at bidding--only setting him when he bid! Shirley, you and I certainly exasperated Robert on many occasions when we teamed up. I miss those good times! I look forward to the time when we can play together again in a place where we won't get tired and have to go to sleep and we won't have to go home because we are Home. My prayers are with you and yours.
Love,
Terri
