“ I will forever miss the conversations I had with Robert. He has such a great sense of humor. One that bordered on the sarcastic, however entertaining. Robert was always good for a laugh when you needed it, and he was very dedicated to the students and their families. Robert and I worked on a few projects and workshops together, and he proved to be someone you could always rely on. He was talented, had a witty, and no-nonsense way of telling you his truth. Every conversation we had would last a while because I just enjoyed talking to him at length. RIP Robert! I will miss you!
