“ I am so very sorry for the recent loss of your loved one, Roberta Brewer. I have a brief encouraging message I would like to share with you from God's Word, the Bible. The Bible can be a great source of both comfort & hope during this most difficult time in your lives. For example, at Revelation 21:3-5 it assures us that the day is soon coming when our most loving Heavenly Father is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and that even pain & death will be no more. I hope after reading this it will be of some comfort to each one of you. If later you would like to learn more from the Bible about why we die or why does a loving God allow so much suffering & injustice, please feel free to go to the website: www.jw.org to find satisfying answers.

Two years after the fact, I find that someone with whom I briefly shared the joys of Christian ministry many years ago has gone to rest. I have no doubt whatsoever that her faith, her zeal, and her devotion to our Father and Comforter, Jehovah, were as strong on June 27, 2014, as they were in 1967 in a little town on the coast of Maine. By now, her family may have little reason to come here to take note of what I write; but, my heart and prayers are with Horace and their daughters, with Mary and Eunice, and other family members, and her friends in the congregation there, because the certainty of the resurrection and the lingering sense of loss rest in the same recesses of the heart.
