

Rod - Fairfield

February 17, 1948 - July 24, 2012

Roderick Alan Livingston left this earth on Tuesday July 24, 2012 with his loving wife beside him, Linda Livingston. They would have been married 32 years on August 2nd of this year. Rod or affectionately called Unkie Wad, was born February 17, 1948. He was survived by his loving and dedicated wife Linda Livingston of Conroe, Texas, revered mother – in-law Janiece Leadbetter of Fairfield, Texas; brother and sister-in-law George and Kristi Livingston of Disney, Oklahoma; sister Cheryl Ward of Anaheim, California; sister-in-law Loujean Trobaugh of Pasadena, Texas; brother-in-law and sister-in-law Don and Nancy Akin of Spring, Texas and sister-in-law Jennifer Leadbetter of Spring, Texas. He was also survived by numerous nieces and nephews along with many more great nieces and nephews who all loved him dearly. Rod was a man of many talents, the source of laughter for his family and had a knack for details. His life motto was “To fail to plan was a plan to fail.” As a family, we really hated that motto but loved Rod for it. If you sat down with Rod for too long, he would have a Sci-Fi movie playing before we had time to get away. In all jobs, task and projects he completed, he took pride in his performance. He was well respected by his co-workers for his strong ethical behavior. Rod was a loving husband, giving uncle and a mentor to all he came in contact. Rod was preceded in death by his parents’ George E. and Evelyn Livingston, Jimmy Ward, J.C. Leadbetter, Tom Trobaugh, Tommy Trobaugh, and LeaAnn Leadbetter. The pallbearers are George Livingston, Don Akin, Clint Akin, Rigo Munoz, Mike Tarte, Gene Chavers, Mark Chavers,

Floyd Reese and Dennis Thornton. He was laid to rest on Friday, July 27, 2012 at the Post Oak Cemetery in Fairfield, Texas. Memorials may be given to the American Diabetes Association or the Post Oak Cemetery Memorial Fund c/o Mackie Goodman, P.O. Box 414, Fairfield, Texas 75840
