“ As we sit here feeling sad over the news of Ronny's passing, our thoughts and prayers go out to the Lee family, they've lost a good man, one who always greeted us with a smile, one who always had his heart, mind, and home opened to visitors, we've enjoyed conversations about Drag-racing, Dune Buggies, Boats & the Lake, we've spent time through the years with the Lee family, enjoying their company, the lake, and Ronny's cooking at the parties, the parties where some of us met our wives, or took them there as dates before we were married, then later took our kids after they came along. Ronny, was a part of so many people's lives, and helped create so many great memories, we will all miss him.

“ I am so sorry to learn of your loss. When I think of Ronnie I see a little blonde headed boy that smiled a lot and was always very polite and considerate.

I haven't seen him in a long time but his mother is a very good friend to me and she has kept me up to date with her family pretty good.

I am far away from Texas but my thoughts and prayers are with you. God Bless you all.
