“ *I have so many good memories of my Uncle Ronnie. He use to ride me on the road grader every chance he got when I was little. He would always make me laugh talking about "Almie" my grandmother (his mother) I can hear him calling her that now. We had such a good time when we went to Texas to visit him and Jeanette. Wonderful memories. I am so sorry we can't come to Texas but we are for sure with you all in our hearts. Love and prayers to you all.

“ Ronnie was a good man and a good brother n law, good to my family and a good daddy and granddaddy when he didn't have to be and won the love and respect for children that wasn't his. Loved them dearly....
