“ *Mary Jane
There was never a better lifelong friend than Ronnie. His wit and demeanor made us all smile and look forward to our next conversation. He's a special person and we'll miss him tremendously but...Heaven gets a treat. I'm sure by now he's reunited with all that went before him and has a lot to talk about.
God bless you and your family.*

“ *Mary Jane,
My heart is hurting today for the loss of one of the greatest guys I've ever known. I still remember the beginning of your lifelong romance at Lee School, and I never knew a couple more perfectly suited for each other. I know that your heart is broken today, but please know that I have you and your family in my prayers. Love you, Joan Moore*

“ Ronnie was a wonderful mentor and friend. I have only fond memories of my time spent with Ronnie at Gibson's pharmacy. His influence helped me to respond to my calling to be a pharmacist. He showed me that being a pharmacist is much more than just knowledge, that common sense and empathy are just as important, and he embraced that approach to work and life. For this I am truly and forever thankful. May God bless and comfort Ronnie's family.
