“ Dear Jane and Family

On behalf of the Blake Family, we offer our profound sympathy and prayers as we all grieve the loss of our Dear Cousin, Roy Harris, Jr. Jr. (as we always called him) and his entire family always welcomed us into their home and treated us as part of the immediate family. He was a gentle soul and I don't remember him ever speaking ill of anyone. We will never get over the loss, but with God's mercy and blessings, we can get past it and relish our fond memories of him.

“ Dear Jane, Roylene, and Amanda plus all of Roy's extended family.

We were just notified of Roy's passing, and needless to say, we are very sad. Even though years have separated our close contact, Gerry and I will always remember all of you with such warmness and love. Roy was a friend and when he was working on our house, we had such a good time. He made us laugh and we shared some spiritual times as well. Roy was a very smart talented person and his passing will leave such a big void in the lives of people that he knew and loved. Please accept our sincerest sympathy and prayers at this very sad time. God bless all of you. All our love,

“ Our memories would fill a book and are etched forever in our minds. The entire Harris family played such a vitally important role in our lives in Emhouse and then in Corsicana, and occupy a HUGE space in our hearts even today. Roy was a friend to both of us. We will never forget. Never.

“ Jane, We were so saddened to hear of Roy’s passing. He was such a great guy and a true friend to my brother Mack, even when he (Mack) was being ‘unlovable.’ Mack truly loved him like a brother. I’m so glad I got to know the two of you. Roy was always so polite and helpful. He would help anyone however he could. We admired him and so did the rest of our family. I know he is resting in the arms of Jesus now and feels no pain. He and Mack are together once again. Sending prayers for you and the family. Cathy Alburty and family
