“ ROY WAS A GREAT MAN AND I KNEW HIM THROUGH THE RADIO AND THROUGH HIS SON DAVID. I WORKED WITH BOTH CINDY AND DAVID IN CORSICANA. ROY LOVED HIS SONS AND THEY LOVED HIM. I HAD TO SMILE WHEN I SAW LEE'S NAME-- SOMEWHERE IN MY BELONGINGS I HAVE A PHOTO OF HIM AS A NEWBORN THAT DAVID HAD GIVEN TO ME. MY DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO ALL OF YOU.

“ Dear Roy we will always remember our good friend. Thank you for always coming to Corsicana Automotive when you needed something done. You were always so nice and kind to us. We always enjoyed visiting together. We sure will miss you. I'm writing you a special poem for you, love Billie

"My Wish For You"

*I'm sending forth this little note.
It brings my wishes true.
Though I'd rather it be roses
All sweet and fresh with dew.
Your passing is a special day for you. So' I've a heartfelt prayer.
I asked that God will set your feet upon a special stair.
To help you mount up step by step.
His hands upon your own. Until you climb to golden heights and reach at length his throne.
God take you up another rung,
To reach a star today.
A star of love, of faith, and peace,
To light you on your way.
God bless you on this day of yours, And give you of his grace.
And may his light be ever near,
To shine upon your face.*

We will see you real soon, LOL Billie Taylor Sherrell and James

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of the passing of my former co-worker Roy Miller. He was a staple at KAND for so many years and during the many years that I worked there myself, I have to say that some of my best memories were of conversations I'd have with Roy before beginning my airshift. He was so laid back yet so funny at the same time. And he was such a good sport too. I must confess that every once in awhile, a certain other DJ and I would conspire to place a fake call into TalkTime and see how Roy would react. I'll never forget the 'Purina Monkey Chow incident.' I think he got a pretty good chuckle out of that one himself.
To the family of Mr. Miller, you have my deepest sympathy and you'r in my thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time. God Bless you.

“ I remember a tall, thin man with cowboy boots, standing in front of his Literature Class reciting a passage from ROMEO AND JULIET-only at Kerens High School. Who remembers Mr. Miller and James Spivey arguing about the words to the song STAY ALL NIGHT, STAY A LITTLE LONGER? Good Times! May the memories you cherish bring you comfort at this time. “ 45 years. I have known and been close friends with the man I called Doug Miller. We always were connected through our mutual friends, our hardships, our affection for one another. Doug was kind, moral, smart, caring and loved his family so very much.

I am sad at his death. My sympathy goes to those I knew: Mom, Doug, David. He loved you very much.

“ *Dear Miller Family, Roy was always around, he will be missed by so many of us. He came into the library where I work so often that he became a part of the library extended family. I was always looking for a book that might appeal to him. He was always friendly.
I pray that he is enjoying some great books and good country music
in heaven now.
My thoughts and prayers are with all of you in your loss of this special person.

“roy was a good man and will be missed.
he was a treasure trove of musical information, and a story teller to beat all. i am so proud that he got to take his trip with his grandson, and that they both had such a good time. for the grandkids, i want you to treasure the memories you have because you got to experience ramblin roy and that was truly a gift from god. the one good thought that i had at first is that he will again get to visit his friend cyndi walker, and all those golden country folks from days past.
you have my heartfelt sympathy, but we all know that ramblin is educating god on country music right now, and god is probably saying...will this man ever shut up.....god bless you all, and i hope the memory of roy lives on in each of your hearts.
thanks for sharing roy with us,

“ MY HEART BROKE WHEN I HEARD THE NEWS ABOUT ROY'S PASSING, NOT FOR HIM BUT FOR US THAT ARE LEFT HERE WITHOUT HIM. HE WAS TRULY A GREAT PERSON IN EVERY WAY.I TALKED WITH HIM LAST WEDNESDAY, AND AS ALLWAYS HE ENDED THE CONVERSATION , WITH THANK YOU, MISS GAYLE. I LOVED HEARING MATTIE TALK TO HIM ON THE RADIO. HOW HE LOVED THOSE GRANDCHILDEN. I HAD THE GOOD FORTUNE OF SITTING RIGHT BEHIND HIM AT THE JOHN CONLEE SHOW. HE WAS LATE COMING IN AND MARGIE KEPT LOOKING BACK TO SEE IF SHE COULD SEE HIM. FINALLY HE CAME STROLLING IN WITH THAT GRIN OF HIS, AND THE RELIEF ON MARGIE'S FACE WAS QUITE EVIDENT. MARGE, HE IS OKAY NOW!! LOVE ALL OF YOU AND OUR PRAYERS ARE WITH YOU ALL.

“ Margie, I'm really sorry about Roy, but since he is with God and Jesus we should be envious of him. I know you and the family are hurting at this time but we are thinking and praying for you all. I'm going to leave you with some words that most likely will make you laugh.

I was standing beside Roy one Monday on band day when you got up to sing. Well, you said something about the song and Roy said "you better not let your mother hear you say that" and he laughed. I will remember him for that.

“ I was saddened to learn of Mr. Miller's passing. I don't think I've ever known a man who had a greater love of literature - or a more unique way of sharing it with kids! I have very fond memories of him standing in front of our class at KHS, one foot in the trash can, "strumming" his yardstick, sharing wonderful insights into Shakespeare - all the while singing a country song. I confess that I can't hear "Luckenbach, Texas" on the radio without smiling as I think of Mr. Miller singing it for us as we had graduation rehearsal. He was a fine man who was unafraid to share his affection for his students and family. I am pleased that he was able to live his dream. My condolences are with those who cared for him.

“ Sadly, I did not know Roy personally - only through his sister Marjorie, who sent me a tape of his broadcast the day he mentioned me on his show. She explained he was recovering from a cold, but, to me, he sounded wonderful. The tape will remain one of my 'treasures'. My prayers and condolences go to the entire Family at this time of bereavement. ~Lila

“ Today I lost one of my very dear friends. I know Heaven received a new angel last night. My heart aches for each of you. I know how much Roy loved his family, co-workers and friends. Roy was what a true friend was all about. Roy could just make you feel special. His voice brought a smile to so many over the years. He was a very special part of my day. I will miss him so much. He was so proud of getting to spend time with his grandkids and getting to take the trip with Lee. Thankgoodness for all our wonderful memories. Each of you are in our thoughts and prayers each day.
If there is anything I can do please let me know. I love you guys.

“ Roy taught me English at Mildred High School.He was also our drill team sponsor.Back in the late 60`s and early 70`s the teachers were spread around .I look back now,as an adult and see how Roy or Mr. Miller as we called him ,influenced us in so many ways.Roy was a delight as a radio announcer.Even as a teacher ,he loved country music.We could skip the English ,if we were able to get him on the subject of country music.I will always remember him as a apecial person in my life.
