

Russell Wayne Tidwell

May 1, 1953 - March 21, 2024

Russell “Rusty” Wayne Tidwell, passed away at the age of 70 at Baylor Jack and Jane Cardiac Hospital in Dallas, Texas on March 21, 2024

Rusty was preceded in death by his parents, Virgil Tidwell and Zo Ann Farmer, and his beloved brother, Mark Tidwell.

Rusty is survived by his beloved son, Kyle Tidwell and Kathy Tidwell Morgan who took very good care of Rusty in the last few months of his life. Rusty is also survived by his daughter Cassie and husband Taylor Brickman and their two children Brandon and Kennedy, as Cassie was a mother first before anything, brother Bret Tidwell and children Jeremy and Crystal, beloved sister-in-law Phyllis Tidwell, wife of Mark Tidwell, and his nephews Kristopher Tidwell (Amber), Aaron Tidwell (Amy) and their children, Kennedi and Kase, and nephew Dylan Tidwell and son Brentley, cousins Kevin Farmer and family, and Reggie Farmer (Kathy) and family.

A true country boy at heart, Rusty found joy in the simple pleasures of life. He cherished his upbringing on the farm and held a deep appreciation for nature. Rusty’s passions included hunting, fishing, welding, camping, and working with his hands. His hands were always busy, and his skills were unmatched. He was a skilled painter and awesome football player with many awards.

Though Rusty may have left this earthly realm, his legacy of hard work, dedication, and love for the outdoors will continue to inspire those who were fortunate enough to know him. May he rest in eternal peace.

Cremation arrangements are under the thoughtful direction of Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home.
