“ A thought or two about my Aunt Ruth. I've always loved this lady because she never wanted anything but good for everyone. Don't guess I ever saw her without a smile on her beautiful face. Though she had many sad events in her life, her faith and love for God never wained. She hid her grief because she knew, one day, it would all be worth it. That day has come and I know she is at peace and her dreams have been fulfilled. Aunt Ruth , you have always been a blessing to all and now you can enjoy peace. And I hope I may speak for all who knew you and love you when I say this one last thing. When you meet Jesus and he welcomes you home, I can almost hear you saying, "Jesus, will you move a little this way so I can get you in the picture?" Love you.
