“ I'll always remember your big heart and smile. I'm so proud of everything you went on to accomplish. It seems like yesterday we were sitting in my office and you were asking for advice on this big step for your future. I encouraged you to take it and told you to do what makes your heart happy. You have touched so many lives with your kindness. You will live on forever in the many hearts of those who loved you dearly. I pray for comfort for family and loved ones through this time. Fly high starshine!!!
