July 3, 1956 - June 11, 2017

Sandra Rae Kaiser, age 60, of Corsicana, TX ended her ongoing battle with cancer surrounded in love at Navarro Regional Hospital at 3:35pm on June 11, 2017.

While born in Arkansas and living most of her adult life in Corsicana, Sandra always loved and yearned to return to her time on the beaches of California and went back whenever she could. “ A few years ago when I moved to Corsicana, the very first week of my junior year I made my best friend, David, and started hanging out with him all the time. He and Sandy immediately made me feel right at home in a new town and different town. Sandy was an absolute delight to get to know and hang out with. Funny, kind, and one of the best cooks I've known, everything about her exuded strength. The favorite memories I have are hanging out with her and the family on the back porch while grilling or just talking. She will be sorely missed but I know she's pain free now.

“ My husband, Randy Collins, worked with Sandy at Guardian for many years. I could always tell how fond he was of Sandy, because if you know my husband, you will know that he doesn't give compliments easily. And, you will also know, that he admires hard work and a good attitude. Sandy embodied those qualities, along with many more. Randy admired her work ethic toward her job, but also in the way that she cared for her family. He would come home telling me about her and I might feel a slight twinge of jealousy, because I could hear the admiration in my husband's voice. He said many times that she was the best QC Guardian ever had. I didn't get to know Sandy really well, but I did get to know her through my husband's words and his stories. I know the world got a little smaller on June 11th. There are places in hearts that will never be filled. But, I also know that there is a God in Heaven. I believe that Sandy is in His presence now and she now knows all the mysteries that still await those of us still here. She will be dearly missed, as she was dearly loved. God's peace and comfort to the family during this time of mourning.

Sandy was such a giggly, sweet girl when you all came to visit. I always looked up to her. It's so hard to find the right words to help heal the hurt. I love all of you and am sorry I cannot be there. Love, your cousin, Susie Davis Denette
