“ It has been a while since I last spoke to Mrs. Shipman, but she always made me feel welcome and comfortable in her home when I was in high school with Mandy. I remember that she always seemed to chose her words carefully and spoke with a calm assurance.

“ Mr. Shipman and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. I did not know Mrs. Shipman very well, but she was a nice/beautiful person. She will be missed by many. Allison, your posting touched my heart. You hold your memories close and never forget her. Grandmother's are special people that touch your lives in so many ways that no one can. A piece of her lives on in all of you in so many ways.

Mandy, I will be praying for you all of you. You will have tough days and months ahead of you. I will be praying that God will comfort you all and give you all peace during this difficult time. You know that she is not suffering anymore. She fought a long hard battle and God saw that it was time for her to be with Him. I can't know what you are going thru as I have not gone thru this kind of loss, but just know that there are people who are praying for you all. God will touch you and bless you with comfort. If you need anything, give me a call.

Take care!!

Love,

Violet Crum and family

“ *Allison,
I'm so very sorry for your loss. I know grandmothers are so special to their granddaughters.
Even though I didn't know your grandmother, I know she was truly blessed to have such a beautiful, sweet daughter and granddaughter.
I will be thinking of you, your mom and dad, and your brother. I will keep all of you in my prayers.*

“ This was my Aunt Sandy. A wonderful, beautiful lady. I wish I would have had more time with you, but I know you knew how much I loved you and that my heart & prayers were with you. I have ALOT of fond memories of my Aunt Sandy from when I was a child and a young woman and mother. She was so loving and supportive and always gave the best advice. Most of all she was honest. She had the biggest smile and the best personality. She could lift you up even on her worst days. She was such a strong woman. It was almost like she had no fear. She loved everyone unconditionally and gave so unselfishly. My God is smiling upon you now, and as you always said.....This was a blessing in disguise. I thank God you are no longer suffering. I will miss you Aunt Sandy!! My love and prayers are with you all. I am so thankful I get to be there with you all during this time. May you feel God's love and comfort during the lonely times and always.

“ My grandma was one of the nicest people I know and she truly was one of my best friends. I will miss her greatly and so will everyone who knew her she was greatly loved by everyone and touched the hearts of many. I'm sad she had to go this way but it was God's plan for her. After a long hard battle with cancer she never gave up I've never been prouder to call her my grandma I love her and will miss her and I will never forget her sweet smile.

“ *Mr. Shipman and family,
My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to you and your family in your loss. Mrs. Shipman was a very pleasant and a very strong lady. She always had a smile on her face when she would come in the office no matter what she was facing. She will be missed by all. May God give you the strength, comfort and peace that only He can give.*

“ A life well lived is worth honoring - such was the case for Mrs. Sandy. She brightened our church since the day she first walked through our doors. Her kind smile and gracious spirit made her a delight to our church family. We'll miss her fellowship, but we praise God that we will celebrate the Lord's goodness with her when we join her in Heaven!
