“ To My Dearest Lane Family:

Sending my deepest thoughts, prayers and love. I must say what an honor and privilege to know such a wonderful person as Sherri. The best thought that sticks in my mind is something I told her over and over: " There's no one like my Sherri." What you see is what you get! Never a dull moment when being around her. She was always so great at making you smile and laugh. Our God; Jehovah who has promised everlasting life to all obedient people. Can not and will not lie. Tit 1:2 May Jehovah God keep you in his memory.

“ I was terribly sad to hear this news. I met Sherri and you, Don, at a party when I was younger and Alysa was just barely walking. You guys were so fun that you instantly became friends. It has been many years since I had seen you all, but heard often how you were doing and kept in touch with Sherri through Facebook, although this bit of news I had not heard. I pray for all of you to be comforted during this time. It is a wonderful hope we have in Jehovah.

“ When Sherri was born and her mom had to go back to work and Sears my mom Pat Woolley baby sat her and I will always remember that me and my sister Laurill Hunter played with her just like she was a little doll. Peggy would always have her is fluffy pants over her diaper and my mom always called her Fluffy even when she was little she always brought love and laughter where ever she was. Throughtout the years I did not see her until Michael came to work with me and the first time I saw her she was the sweetest and most precious litle girl as she always was and I called my Mom and told her that I saw Fluffy today and of course she smiled and laughed.

To out little Fluffy and her family she will be so missed but she was loved everywhere she was.

Love to all of the family and friends,

“ My beautiful sister, both inside and out, I will miss you dearly. My heart knows that you are with some loving and powerful people in my life, but the selfish side of me still wants you here. I know you called me Sunshine, but really you were the one that illuminated the room with your beautiful smile and contagious laughter. I see you in Alysa's beautiful eyes and Garrett's loving nature. In my heart, you will live forever and the memories will be endless.

“ Saying goodbye to one of your besties of 35 years is one of the hardest things I've ever done. She inspired me in so many ways. She was the most incredible mom ever, courageous, determined, hard-headed, always full of life, living life to it's fullest, laughing till your sides ached, witty as heck, always concerned about others before herself, high spirited, loved playing board games (boxers or briefs), hard for her to stay outta trouble just to have a lil fun, doing what it took to get the job done, absolutely hated the sound of cotton when you squeezed it btwn your fingers, stood up for what she believed in, loved to kiss on the lips, always going the extra mile, people pleaser and just plum crazy!

*I love you, Sherri McCluney Lane, and you will live forever in my heart and your laughter in my head. My selfish love wants you back but that same love wants you to be pain free, healed and completely restored as you are right now. We were friends till the very end, thru thick & thin and THAT'S true friendship. Our crew ~ Lisa, Lori, Lorie & myself miss you so badly and can't imagine our world without you. You have finally found Peace, my dear friend.
I love you more AND to the moon & back AND forever to eternity! ~

“ *Sherri-
I was telling Mom Yesterday that I remember riding down Wilson Road with yall...and Alyssa was sooo tiny and she said "Look Momma the trees are praying!!" -Because the trees were leaned over the road on both sides. It still makes me smile to think about that. You were a beautiful courageous woman with a smile that lit up a room. Watch over us and keep us out of trouble! My prayers go out to your family. May God wrap them up in his comforting arms.*

“ I was deeply saddened to find out this morning Sherri had gone to be with God. Since moving away from Corsicana, I have lost contact with friends and classmates over the years, but I have never forgotten the friend Sherri was or the laughter and smiles she brought to others! She was a high spirited person, witty and fun, caring and honest, fearless and brave. My thoughts, love, and prayers go out to Don and their children, as well as the entire family.

“ I got to know Sherri from her coming into City National Bank where I work. She was such a vibrant soul and could just make everybody in the room smile with her. Sherri was such a beautiful person inside and out and her laughter and energy could just draw you to her. I know we are sad right now but she is in a much better place with no more pain or suffering. To Don, her children and the rest of her family, my prayers go out to you.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss. There is a void that cannot be replace. The life insurance we buy is really preparation for death. But the life insurance Jehovah God offers is the destroying of death itself and all the things we can think of that causes it. He will do this through His Kingdom that His Son Jesus Christ is King of. We can gain comfort now through the Bible. And in the very near future we will hold our love ones again. We all will live happy healthy lives forever in exquisite delight and in an abundance of peace here on earth.

“ To all of the members of Sherri's family, We are deeply saddened to hear of your loss of such a fine person and friend as Sherri. May God be with each and every one of you, as you try to find the strength, guidance, courage, and support to go on. Several of us wonder why we have to be without some of the greatest friends and relatives in our lives. We have all surely lost a great one in Sherri. Not only did I attend several grades with Sherri as a classmate, but I believe I worked at Brookshire's with Don many years ago. I haven't seen them in many years, because we all stay so busy. It is things like this that remind me to slow down, and appreciate our time with each and everyone who is dear to us in our lives. Sherri was truly one of these people. May God bless all who knew and loved Sherri.
