“ Sherry was a sweet, precious lady. I remember, when I was still teaching full-time, that Sherry came to sub at my school. At one point during the day, I walked by the classroom where she was subbing. This group of students normally had difficulty sitting still and quiet. However, with Mrs. Baggett in there, the students were extremely quiet. She was calm but stern. I remember another time, she and Mark opened up their home to our Sunday School class, for lunch. She had made some wonderful baked potatoes, with all the trimmings and toppings. We had a wonderful time eating and having fellowship with them. She was a kind woman who will be missed. May God bless Mark, Jessica, Josh, Beverly, and all her family.
