“ Shirley and husband ran around with Bessie and Charles Saunders, my sister and brother in law. I spent many times at HORV with her singing to her, giving her a hug, visiting with her and my Aunt Edith Rutherford who she used to work with at the Hat Factory. I took a pic or two of her. She was so different from when she was a checker at Brookshires because she was so lost. Sweet, sweet lady she tried so hard to be normal. Bless her heart! I was thinking of her the other day when I went out to the nursing home. She is not lost anymore, but at home whole and peaceful with her Saviour. God Bless her and I am thankful for the blessings I received by spending time with her. I will meet her again in Heaven. Praise the Lord!

“ Gary and family,
My thoughts are with you and your family during this difficult time. May you always treasure the love and memories she gave to each of you.
I Thessalonians 4:13 instructs us not to grieve as those who have no hope; but to encourage one another with the knowledge that this is not the end. One day we will be reunited with those who have gone before. What a sweet reunion that will be.
