July 24, 1946 - December 11, 2019

Shirley was born on July 24, 1946 to Anthony "Tony" and Mildred "Millie" Rusnak in Braddock, PA. Shirley went to the Lord on December 11, 2019 when she "rehabbed" one day and kicked leukemia's butt.

Shirley was preceded in death by her parents, Tony and Millie Rusnak; husband, David Jaykus and granddaughter, Brittney. Shirley is survived by her brothers, Thomas Rusnak and wife Jan and John Rusnak. Shirley had three children, Tracey Frederick and husband Glen, Michelle "Mickey" Runion and husband Robert "Bo" and son David Jaykus and girlfriend, Christy. Shirley also had four beautiful grandchildren; three great grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews and lots and lots of wonderful friends!

Shirley was a wonderful wife, mother and very best friend to Audrey Shelton. Shirley loved her Pittsburgh Steelers, the color purple and butterflies which reminded her of her mom.

Shirley will always be remembered by many, loved by many and missed extremely by her sidekick daughter, Tracey.

“ Shirley was the adopted mom to our gang of girls, affectionately dubbed "Ma". Oh, the shenanigans she and Audrey have had to endure. They took such good care of all of us and we grew to love them so very much. My family grew to love Shirley as well and she formed a special bond with my son Xander. We always liked pulling up outside the ranch and Shirley would be waiting on the porch for us, a smile on her face and ready for hugs and ready to play games with "yins". Thank you so much Tracey, for sharing your mom with us. She was a wonderful woman, a joy and a pleasure and I will never forget her. We will miss her terribly. Enjoy your big party, Shirley and don't forget to save me a piece of cake. I will be there to get it soon and get a great big hug. Rest well in the arms of Christ. Until we meet again. Our deepest condolences to her family and to her BFF Audrey. We love ya'll.
