“ Stephanie was one of the sweetest girls you could meet in school growing up. She never had anything bad to say about anyone.. Such a thoughtful and kind soul..My thoughts and prayers are with her sweet family.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Brittingham family. There are no words that I can say to help ease the pain but I know what its like to lose a loved one especially someone like Stephanie. She was one of my sons favorite teachers in jr.high. She was one of my tamale clients. She was always so calm and cheerful, never mad. I prayed for her every nite for her recovery but God had different plans for her. God bless each one of you of the Brittinham family.

“ I will always remember Stephanie as a friend. She was always kind and she loved children. She always had a smile and a nice word for me in the mornings as our rooms were across the hall from one another. I remember her joy upon finding out she was having her first baby. I am sure she will be missed.

“ I was fortunate, in the first week of returning to work, to speak and converse with Stephanie on several occasions. Anyone who would have or has spent time to get to know her would know that she is a sweet woman that loves her children. I have prayed everyday the past two weeks for all of her family including her husband and children. I know she has left a wonderful impact on you, along with myself, and I pray that your memory of her will vividly remain in your hearts forever! She is with the angels!

Will continue praying...

“ I count it an honor to have been a fellow educator with Stephanie at Ennis Jr. High School.

Her legacy will continue through every student that she had taught. Think of the many lives that have been impacted by her willingness to give of herself in the caregiving profession of teaching!

Grief and sorrow is a long term process. May God give you comfort, hope and endurance in the days to come.

“ I taught with Stephanie at EJHS. This year we were going to be on the same team. Please know that Stephanie was an excellent teacher and a wonderful co-worker. She also was extremely sharp. I know I wouldn't have been as keen eyed as she was when she saw a student walking down the street with a stranger. Because of Stephanie, a young man was saved from, at the very least, a horrible kidnapping. Most likely his life was actually saved because she cared enough to contact the authorities. Stephanie was a true hero. I am sorry she did not receive more recognition for this while she was still with us.

My prayers are with all of her family. Please know that God loves Stephanie and he loves you, too!
