“ I was Steve's driver manager for about 19 years. He was a excellent driver and wonderful friend.

About a year ago, I had the honor of winning him to Christ. It was a great day for both of us. I will miss him, and look forward to seeing him again one day.

“ Stephen was such a sweet and kind person. Although we never want to see anyone pass, it is a comfort to know he is no longer suffering. This world is not our home. We are just passing through.

“ We are so sad at the loss of our dear Stephen to our family.

But at the same time we rejoice that he is in heaven and is no longer in pain.

He had such a kind, sweet spirit.

He will never be forgotten.

“ Dear Crystall have just watched your epsdioe and it had me in tears. I knew from the start Melody would be difficult and looked on the internet to see if I could find out how you are getting on only to find your latest post saying that she is keeping your Grandson from you. I am so sorry. Please contact Jeremy Kyle again, he will help you and that way legal costs will be sorted. You have the whole nation behind you and your family. You will get to see him, that I promise you. Just remember that you will always be his Grandmother, nothing will take that away from you. I think you should write him letters and keep them until one day he will be old enough to speak for himself and leave his mother to find you. He will resent his mother from keeping you away from him and when he sees you one day you will have all those letters that were meant for him, proof that he meant so much to you. You could even seal them in envelopes, and include pictures of Yogi for your Grandson one day. He will love and appreciate you so much. Contact Jeremy, this may be resolved quickly but if not, your Grandson will co e to you one day. No doubt about it. Give love to the family and keep strong. Be positive, it always works out in the end.

“ Heaven has a new angel...I spent a year with Stephen during his fight to beat his cancer and there are no words to describe how much he wanted to live and enjoy life. My heart is eased from it's sadness because I was there when he gave his entire being to God thru his salvation and baptism. He shared with me the fact that he had no real family to love or care for him and I know he was brought into my life for a reason. My family embraced him and loved him for the sweet kind soul he was. He was truly a member of my family and he had all the love a family could give. All he ever wanted was to be loved and I know he felt the love that was given to him in his final stage of life. He is at peace in heaven and I have my own personal angel.
