“ *Teresa, Coop, and Christi, Nana and Papaw:
Sorry isn't the word. In fact there are no words to express how sorry we are. It has been extremely difficult to even think of what your family has gone through. We are so proud of all of you. You have been fine examples of God's people. We hope in the days to come that His strength, peace and comfort will overwhelm you. We are here and always will be. I bet they are having a big 'ole round robin right now. Can't wait to join them!*

“ *Teresa and Family,
I am so very sorry for the loss of Steve. You all have been in my prayers and will continue to be. I wish I had the right words to comfort each of you but we know that at this time there are no words that will accomplish that. Hold on to your faith because there is comfort and peace that only God can provide to you and your family today and all the days that follow. If I can help you at any time please call me.*

“ Steve reminds me of our Livingston grandfather, H.M. Livingston. Always very quiet, and very strong. Steve always loved and respected his mother Deane, and a son loving his mother is very important. Steve always tried to see that his mother was alright as she fought for the life of her son. Steve had a deep love for his mother and father.... as well as his entire family. Hold me a place Steve...I am trying hard to make it up there !

“ *Dear T, Cooper, Chrisi, Kerry, Kent, & all the Vandiver % Whatley families,
I am so sorry to here about Steve. He was such a fighter, and fought long & hard. He was, & will continue to be, such an inspiration to us all. Back when I was working for the Co-op I would stop by every couple weeks & visit with him. Never heard him complain, not one time. I'll always remember flying in from Pecos a couple years ago for his benefit roping at Dick's, Steve entered like 3 times-& won the roping & the saddle!! He just didn't know the meaning of give up. We will miss him so, but now he is in heaven-heeling for the Healer !! And he is not hurting any longer! Hopefully that will bring you peace. God bless you all & you are in my prayers.

“ Anyone that knew Steve Vandiver, knew what a modest person he was. He could go to the NFR and win all 10 rounds and come home and never bragg or say a word about it. He never wanted to be in the spotlight. There is only one time I know of that he wanted people to know what was going on in his life. It was the first time I talked to him after he found out he had cancer. He said, You can tell anybody you want about this, because the more people that know about it will be that many more that can pray for me. He put his faith in the Lord. And I know he is in a better place now. The Vandivers and Whatleys always treated me like family and I can only pray that your pain will be taken away and replaced with joyful memories. As some of my greatest memories are times in my life I spent with Steve.

“ My son was my HERO. I have seen whatyou were able to do with the worst pain that anyone could suffer. A lesser man would have given up a lot sooner than you did,but you kept on going for the sake of your family. I know that you did all that you could do to help Cooper be the best man that he could be. I know that you loved all of your family,especially Annie and Ava and your bet buddy Bell. I know that when I see Cooper rope I will be seeing you. I love you,
