“ Pat Layfield was a good Christian example to all. She loved her family with her whole heart. She wanted to make sure that her children had a good Christian foundation to stand on when she was gone. She went thru many days of suffering from poor health. Now, those days are behind her and she is reunited with her husband in heaven. We grieve for those left behind, but not for Pat.

I wish the best to all the family. Many prayers have been said...I said a special prayer for Pat and her family...just wanted you to know.

Love, The James Bidy family (James, Charlotte & Kristen)
