

Teele R. Jackson

October 22, 1915 - February 5, 2016

Mrs. Teele Ray Jackson went to meet her maker on February 5, 2016. She was 100 years old on October 22nd. She said she wanted to live to be 100 and was ready to meet her maker, and that she did.

On October 22, 1915 she was born to Edward Sam Paddy and Rosie Lee Goins Paddy. Teele Ray was the last surviving member of her 11 siblings. She moved from Athens to Corsicana in 1970. She operated a day care from her home and she baby sat for many doctors and lawyers families. The kids called her Gramma Jack. She traveled all over the U.S. and made her yearly visits to South Carolina to visit her daughters family and grandchildren. She made quilts by hand, crafts and clothes for all her children. She lived in her own apartment taking care of everything until age 97. She then moved to Heritage Oaks West until her death.

She is survived by her daughters, Nancy (Underwood) Perham and husband Ray and Merlene (Underwood) Wallace and husband Billy; grandchildren, Beverly Graham, Karen Perham, Cheryl Wallace, Keith Perham (Susan); great grandchildren, Kaitlyn and Ashley Perham, Anna Perham (James Oates), Luke Edward Perham (namesake of Edward Jackson), Jackson Keith Perham (namesake of Gramma Jack).

She is preceded in death by her parents; her siblings; son, PFC Edward M. Jackson age 18 in Vietnam; Glen Graham a son-in-law; daughter, Raynell Graham and grandson Kevin A. Perham.

Condolences to Deacon Ray and Nancy Perham at OLR Catholic Church

3710 Augusta Rd. Greenville, South Carolina 29605.
