“ Thomas (Twinkie') was the first friend I made when I moved to Friendship Towers. He had so many stories to tell and always had me laughing til my side hurt. He use to tell me about his wife. He was so in love with her. Now he can be with her again. We started calling each other "Twinkie" one day after I had gotten my hair cut. Our hair color was the same and my hair was cut pretty short as his was. I have had the privilege of meeting a lot of his family. He was truly loved and respected. We will all miss him a lot. R.I.P. my friend.

Mr. Davis was always so full of life and a wonderful man. He always extended a warm welcome to me when I saw him. My thoughts and prayers are with Danny, Brenda, Amanda and Steven. May God wrap you in his arms and take away the pain and tears. Always think of the wonderful memories that you have of him as a father, father in law and grandfather, those memories will replace the emptiness you feel in your heart.
