

Timothy Perryman

Timothy Dale Perryman, 53 passed away on June 15, 2022. He was a loving husband, father of two, a caring brother and son. Tim was born in Arlington, Texas and later he and his family relocated to Purdon. He attended school at Dawson, where he made lifelong friends. “ Timothy Dale is my cousin. I feel robbed of his presence in my life. All of us cousins were very close, growing up. However, the march of the years pulls us away from that loving, central core of familial fellowship. It's not bad; it's just the course all of us take in our lives as we mature and begin families of our own. Ultimately, tragedy and death pull us back to that core of love for solace and comfort. It's good we have this refuge of friends and relatives to give succor to us. My prayers for Tim's wife and children are utmost in my mind; Aunt Sandy & Uncle Otis: I love you both as much as my own parents and wish for you to "cast your burdens on Him, for He careth for you." Sonja and Charlotte, I miss seeing y'all; God will comfort you both if you but seek to do His will. May God bless all Tim's friends, co-workers and others that were touched by his life here below.

“ Tim helped me through so many struggles in my home life. Working beside him daily for years we would often talk about family, politics, religion, and our love for the outdoors. We both were hard headed and often angry with something we didn't agree with but he taught me patience and often gave me strength to work when I was struggling with physical or emotional pain. Tim could work anyone under the table but what I will remember the most is the times he would just listen when I was in a bad place. I've only had a few true friends in life and Tim was one of the best. I respected and have never met a man with a work ethic and a heart like his. RIP

“ This saddens me so much, Tim and I were childhood friends when I lived in Purdon, I've been trying to find him for many years. We tore up those old gravel roads that whole summer, fished a lot in any farmers ponds we could find, and just did everything we could as young teens did. Going to miss you even though we couldn't reconnect. Many prayers to his family. God bless and God speed old friend.
