

Tisha Renee Cormier

April 5, 1972 - November 6, 2021

Tisha Renee Cormier, the giver of amazing hugs and beautiful smiles, left her deer stand and this earth on November 6, 2021. She was born on April 5, 1972 and packed a life filled with love, joy and positivity into her 49 years. Tisha loved living at the 55 Ranch in Rural Shade and being a cattlemoan. She was a crack shot with her gun and bow, as well as an avid fisherman (as long as the worm supply was good) Tisha loved all the animals and gave them all names, including "Big Toad" and "Jimmy Crack Corn" the squirrel. Tisha was greeted in heaven by her beloved granny Mickey Jones, her deceased father Tom Lewis and Mimi and Pa Lewis her deceased grandparents. Those who will miss her until they meet again are her mother Linda Davis, her dad Michael Pardee, her sisters Krystal Smith and Leah Mickie, her niece Amber Smith, her nephews Gauge Smith, Thomas Mickie and Trevor Neely and numerous other great nieces, great nephews and stepchildren. The Allen family, the Costner family, the Koonce family and the Pardee family were privileged and honored to count Tisha as a family member and are heartbroken to say goodbye. Tisha was loved by many and truly loved all the little children she ever met, giving them her undivided attention and adoration. Her best buddy, Gavin Koonce, also known as "Pea Picker" will miss the sleepovers and train rides with Miss Tisha. Tisha leaves behind her many families and friends in Virginia, who suffered through all of her stories about Texas while she lived there for 25 years. Tisha loved everyone with all her heart and soul and gave her Lord all the glory. Her angel wings were ready, but we were not.

“Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid or discouraged for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go. Joshua 1:9”

“ Tisha spent the day before her passing in pure acts of charity, helping a neighbor. When she left me, she went home joyfully looking forward to the next day because she would be with her family that she Loved Deeply. And that she would be spending the day with the family she loved doing something she loved to do. Even then, that very morning, she stopped what she was doing to help one of the hunting group fix the top covering on his stand that had come loose. Then she went to her stand.

“ Dear Mike, Benji, Billy, Tisha's mother and sisters, and all her friends!

Thank you for sharing Tisha with your Iowa cousins in this beautiful Mass. Our hearts have been with all of you these difficult days as you send Tisha home to her loving God.

*Even though we never met Tisha personally, we felt like we knew her through all the heartfelt stories we've heard through the years that she lived with Mike and Benji. Thank you for making it possible for your Iowa cousins to be with you remotely this morning for her Resurrection Mass! Our prayers joined yours via livestream as we too give thanks for her life. May her spirit continue to be with you, now in a new even deeper way. We now pray TO her to help you in the days ahead. Sending our deepest sympathy, love and prayers!

“ I met Tisha through my dear old pal, Billy. From the initial greeting on to the next, Tisha always welcomed me with the warmest smiles, genuine hugs, and with her endearing eyes. Peacefulness surrounded Tisha and it was contagious. It was like God was always whispering to her. You could feel the calmness while in her presence and hear the love in her voice. She created with care. Her salsa was delicious and always appreciated. I enjoyed our chats at the ranch and I will truly miss her soul when I visit again. The family adored Tisha and you never had to wonder why. My time spent with her was short, but I'm so privileged to have heard her laugh and to have felt her love. I'll keep checking in at the ranch, Tisha. I'll miss you and I know everything you touched will miss you even more. ~ your amiga Monica Pilar Gonzales

“ I was fortunate to have Tish in my life as a young adult. There’s so many memories with her and she even helped welcomed my first born son into the world before she moved back to Texas. She always told me things were bigger in Texas, Texans hearts must be bigger too because when she loved on you she made you feel so important. I’m thankful for her unconditional love and support over the years and only wish I told her I love her more than just occasionally. She has been a blessing to many and I hope that all her loved ones can rejoice in knowing that her life had such a positive impact on people all over the states. Tisha was dearly loved and will be missed. My condolences to her family, loved ones, friends, and my prayers are with you as you navigate life differently now.

“ There are no words that could make such a loss help you to feel better or ease the hurt of loosing a beautiful Heart and Soul as Tish. In our past we had our differences and experiences that led us to come together and be thankful we both loved the same person my daughter Xaviera Janae. I was blessed that God let her come into get life and that she stayed as a continuing part always loving and caring to each of us. I pray God wraps his arms around each of you and when sharing that moment that now is a blessed memory that your heart fills and smiles again that we had her in our life. Much love and hugs to you each now and in days to come.
