“Bubba”

*I knew him so well, when we were kids,
He, my brother and I, the things we did!
Two years older and twice my size,
Now with a smile, I realize,
I loved him much, and he was to me
All I thought a man should be.
Big as a house, and I swear it's true,
I know of nothing he feared to do!
He found his Creator along the way,
And now he stands with God today.
I thank Jesus for the life He planned
That in my youth, I knew this man!
Bubba came to Jesus; that makes me proud,
Because nowhere else was he ever bowed!
When trouble came, he was quick to stand,
And if you knew him, you knew a man!
Yeah, I knew him; he was quite a man!
