“ Momma, I can't believe it's been a year! The tears roll down still for you! I yearn for you more and more all the time. But I know one day we will be reunited and I will be able to have a party with you! Thank you for everything you taught me and for being my strength now! I miss you so much!!! I love you so much and my heart will always break and yearn for you! I wish you were here to hold baby Bell. She needs that special rock that only you can do! She needs to hear In the Lord's Army, and really she needs to think that Walking in a winter wonderland is a lullaby. I love you so much and I am so thankful that I was blessed beyond measure to have you as Momma!! You are the GREATEST person I have ever known!!! Thank you for that!! And for teachin me how to love, just like you! For showing me that if you really love your spouse, you can get through anything with them!! Your unconditional love for dad was such a testament to this, as was your unconditional love to each of us kids and grandkids! No matter what one did, it didn't change how you felt or loved them!!! We all knew we could count on a loving you!!! Thank you Momma!! You are missed by many!!!

I love you and miss you!!

“ To the entire Bryant family:

I thank you all so much for sharing your mom,wife,grandma,great-grandma with me. I'm so blessed to have known her and too have been able to call her "momma". I recall having many dinners with her in the house in Cedar hill and I remember her saying if I was coming over she would make me my favorite meal!Which was chicken strips,potatoes and corn! Ah how my mouth is watering right now. I hope you all find peace in the coming days at knowing how much she was loved and admired by many many people.God Bless you All. Stacey Hinojosa Roberts

“ Susie and Tammie,

Ron and I knew Mamaw just a short time, but, we soon knew her to be a loving, generous, and caring person towards her family and friends.

We know you are grieving right now because she is no longer with us, but we hope you have the Lord's peace that she is in the Lord's arms and praising Him. And you will one day have an eternity to be with her, standing side by side praising Him together.

We love you and share in your sadness today. God bless you and your family.

“ To Suzie, Qorky and Pattie...I'm so sorry that you have lost your mom. One time, when I was young, I was in the car with her and she had country music on the radio, and she was just singing right out loud. I thought that was so cool. To this day, when I'm tapping on the steering wheel and singing along, I think of Aunt Tucker.

“ Patty and all your family,

My heart is completely broken for all of you. Over the last 10+ years I have heard so many stories of your mom and have had the pleasure of knowing her through you Patty. Your mom is gone from sight but will forever live in all of your hearts. A part of her will always live on and that is a tremendous legacy.
