

Tony Gist

April 1, 1961 - January 18, 2023

Tony Dee Gist, 61, born April 1, 1961, passed at his home on January 18, 2023. He was born in Bartlesville, OK and later he attended High School at Fort Gibson, OK, where he won multiple championships on the wrestling team. His favorite past time was catching the weekend rodeos.

After graduation, he found himself in Texas where he found the love of his life and lived the "cowboy" life.

He was preceded in death by his father Danny Joe Gist and his Aunt Donna Springer. He is survived by his wife, Brenda Gist, Mother Joyce Gist of Oklahoma, son Bodee Gist and Grandsons JD & JW, daughter Shelby Callahan and her husband Dakota. He leaves behind two brothers David Gist and wife Lavina, Jerry Gist, along with nephew Danny Gist and wife Cathy and niece Dana and Bryan Center and great nieces and nephews. Tony didn't take long to fit into Texas. He made many friends throughout the years working cattle, showing livestock with his son, and attending multiple team roping events. In his youngest years, he was the one people could count on to catch the rankest cattle off his bay horse Jessie. His most recent past times were spending time as a Papa T with JD and JW, watching his son become a successful auctioneer and bragging on his daughter becoming a nurse. Sundays were his favorite though when Bodee would cook the family steak. He spent 37 years with his loving wife. His personality and many stories will be missed by all.
