“ What an honor it was to spend the last few weeks by Tony's side. To witness him give his life to the Lord and to show him what true love and friendship was really about. There was not a more appropriate moment to take Jesus' hand than when we were listening to "At the Cross". He was a truly good man who had been redeemed and will be very much missed. God bless you Jean! We love you! Don & Brandi Moore

So sorry Jean....timing was never right for me to get to visit with you and Tony after he came home from the hospital! I will always remember the first time really got to see Tony when he was living in the RV up here in town, I knocked on the door, he boomed, Who is it, in a scary squeaky voice I said Lois, Lois who he asked, I said Woody Speer's fiance, okay what do you need, opening his door, I said Woody told me to come ask you if I could fish in your pond, he laughed and said go fish in any of them you want to!!! After that, we all became very good friends...he was a good person, always willing to lend a helping hand and never asking for anything in return!!! My prayers are with you Jean!! I love you and am here for you....so happy Tony got his life right with God!!!
