“ Vera was one of my oldest and dearest friends. We met as teenagers when her family was traveling from Mississippi to Maine and stopped in NH to spend the night with mutual friends. It had snowed and these Mississippi kids had never seen snow. We had a snowball fight. It was great fun and we all became life long friends. I will miss my sweet friend.

“ I agree with everything that has been said about Vera, sweet, kind, loved the Lord, great caretaker and loved people. I will miss her beautiful smile at church. God's plan for her life has been fulfilled. God bless her family during these days. I know it helps knowing that everyone who knew Vera loved her.

“ I miss Vera so very much. I only met Vera about 2 years ago. I started out giving Vera a ride home from work when she could not get one. Then I went taking Vera home from work every night for the past year. We became very close friends. Vera was so funny, and loved to talk. We could sit and talk all night about anything and everything. She helped me understand the scriptures so much. She loved to talk about God and the Bible. She loved her patients at work and genuinely cared about them as she did anyone else that she loves. We went and did things together. The most recent being the Easter Sunday that Vera spent with my family at my son and dil home. The last thing that Vera told me the Friday night that I took her home from work was that she knew that God had a plan for her.... I know that I'm being selfish, but God I was not ready for this plan of yours. I miss my friend, Vera. But believe me when I say that he got the most loving and faithful soul ever. God Bless You Vera.

“ We will miss Vera's sweet smile and willing to help in any way. She sang with our group just this past Sunday in church. She was such a loving and caring lady with the group she worked with. Chuck and I were blessed to have known her and called her friend. To the family, may God be ever near and hold you close in the days ahead.
