

Veronica Dillard

December 12, 1915 - April 6, 2012

Veronica Dillard died Friday, April 6th, 2012 at the age of 96. She was born on December 12, 1915 to Ernest and Winniford Barrett in Wasall, England. She was a homemaker during her lifetime and was the youngest of 6 children. She is survived by her daughter Bobbie Collier and her husband Charlie of Corsicana; Grandchildren Kevin Ray Collier and his wife Elizabeth and a great grandson Gavin of Corsicana and Caryn Renee and her fiance Less McKay of Pflugerville and a number of nieces and nephews. Graveside service is scheduled for Monday, April 9th at 10:00am at Resthaven Memorial Park with Bill Honea officiating.

Tribute Wall

“ Veronica Dillard

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ Chip and I would like to extend our sincere sympathies. Take care of yourself and your family. Let us know if we can help you in any way.

Becky Curington - April 06, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Bobbie i know it was hard for you to let your mom go as for any child of a parent i lost my dad several years a parent/child relationship is the greatest gift of all that bond is one that can never be broken the time that you had together is more precious than life itself i am so glad you and your mom were in my life as always we will always have the memories of beauty school and the gift of you sharing your wonderfull mother i truely loved her sometimes working @ heritage oaks is so rewarding and so sad as to have to say goodbye to the ones that touch your heart so much it hurts again i am sorry for your loss if you need anything please dont hesitate to contact me you will always be able to find me.Lisa Newland

lisa newland - April 06, 2012 at 12:00 AM