“ Miss Vickie was a great woman. I know her from the nursing home. And she will be missed greatly. She would light up the room. ”

“ The first thing I think about is the time Vickie met me in Lufkin for dinner one night. I was in town on business, and we arranged a late dinner. I can still see her when she arrived--dressed to the nines, hair and makeup perfect, that smile that lit up a room just beaming. She was beautiful, and I told her so. She laughed and told me I needed glasses. We had the best visit that night. In fact, we closed the restaurant down. We laughed and talked old times, growing up, and just and catching up. Of course, we always said "let's do this more often," but as life will do, it complicated that promise. We still managed a visit or two in the ensuing years, but none quite like that one.

She was a loving sister and friend to all who knew her, and will be greatly missed.

I love you, Vickie. Rest in peace now, your journey is over.

Rest in the arms of Jesus my "Ole Indian Grandmother " cousin Vickie. I thank God for bringing me to this family when he did. You were one of the main family that just welcomed me with open arms after not seeing any of you since I was a young child. God answered my prayers and you were one of his answers. Today I said my final earthly goodbye because I know I will see you in heaven one day soon. Rest in the arms of Jesus. The love you shared with me and all your family will continue on as we raise our children and grands.

Went to the hospital and never come back. Who was that person in your life?

“ *Every mother is a precious. She was a amazing woman.
Rest in peace.*

“ To my beloved Mom number 2. I have soo many memories but, this precious memory is forever in my heart and I will share. I was so lost in my direction and path. I came to you and told you of another predicament I had gotten myself in. You gave me a list of things we needed to start our morning so I went and got your favorite sugar for your coffee which was Very specific and took time to find but, I found it. You sat with me that whole day and prayed with me and said Linda God has your plan already mapped out. Ask him and trust his answers. Focus on loving and caring for yourself, your family and trust God's map. Do these things and let everything else handle its self. You gave me a St. Christopher's card and had me put it in my wallet. Aunt Vicki, cause that's what I called you. Thank you for being a beacon and a lighthouse in my life. You were a anchor for me when I felt adrift and I am forever grateful my dad brought your Wright family into my life. I wouldn't be me, who has become a stronger and wiser person who can be an anchor for our family now to carry the torch you left to me. I Love You and thank you for loving me, my Vicki.
