I met Victor and Mary Wanda over 40 years ago Vicki and I graduated high school together. I met Troy at Taco Bell. I was going through some rough times. This family welcomed me in and loved me as their own. I spent hours walking in the back of their property. I even helped clear some of it with them. I havent seen them in many years and that makes me truly sad. Thank you Victor for your acceptance and love. Dear Lane family. I always think of you and smile. There were so many happy memories. Thank you loving me and bringing me into the circle of your family. I am so sorry i did not know until it was to late to come. I love you and wish you all the best. May God enfold you in his loving arms. May his peace comfort and give you strength in the daya ahead. You are loved.

“ I met Victor and Mary Wanda at the Worthy family reunion. He always had a smile and he made you feel welcomed. My dad always had to make sure that Victor was going to be a the reunions we attended. My dad looked forward to seeing Victor, who like my dad was in WWII. My daddy really enjoyed his short visits with Victor. I found out that Victor collected hats so every year I'd take him a hat from various places. One year I made one for him. I will miss Victor. A man from the Greatest Generation. He was special to me because he accepted me as family which is very important to me. God has called him home. Those of us still on the Earth we were given a blessing in having known him.

“ So sorry for your loss, but I am grateful for my visits with him and his family that I have known for 50 plus years, memories of him giving me a ride home from school, living in same neighborhood, etc. Most of all for him and his family sharing his room at Twilight with my dad, we will be forever grateful. Love you and your family so much, again sorry for your loss.....Judy Nevill Smith
