“ I was just talking to my family about Virg. I was trying to describe what he was like when we worked at Pizza Hut together. What stands out in my mind is his smile and his gentle nature. He was always so kind to everyone and he made it a pleasure to work with him at all times. He will be missed.

“ Angko Virg,

I'm blessed to have you as my uncle. My mother is blessed to have you as her brother. You're one of a kind. Loving, caring, giving, and for all those who knew you, they know you went an extra mile to help those in need. Thank you for taking me in and raising me up as your own, for loving and appreciating me as I am. I'm going to miss your jokes, your laughter, the way your face lights up when come's cha-cha time. As your son Shane says, you're now the life of the party up there. Virg, you are our angel. Please watch over each and every one of us. Show us how to live, teach us how to give, and guide us with the light of love.

I gave you the coin that a dear friend of mine gave me as a reminder for what i'm thankful for. Please know that i'm oh so thankful for you and that we are part of each other's lives. I love you and miss you already.

Send our love to Edil, Edam, Mari, Mngellakl, Billy Snowden, and the rest of our family and friends.

with love, kern & Ngermaad Kendall Kanai

I BELIEVE THERE ARE ANGELS AMONG US SENT DOWN TO US FROM SOMEWHERE UP ABOVE, THEY COME TO YOU AND ME IN OUR DARKEST HOURS, TO SHOW US HOW TO LIVE TO TEACH US HOW TO GIVE, TO GUIDE US WITH THE LIGHT OF LOVE
