“ Never having the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Kilgo, we got to know Mr. Kilgo at P&S Pharmacy. He was a dedicated husband and loving caregiver. We admired the way he made sure his wife had whatever she needed. There is no doubt that your family has suffered a great loss, but you are fortunate to have had such a wonderful example in your life. May God comfort you as He alone can.

“ Words fail me in trying to describe the love and admiration I have for my dear sister. She was always Nena to me, a name I gave her at an age too young to handle Virginia. Though she struggled with the repeated attacks on her health, she always put her family and others first. She would not let me know how bad things were when we would visit, but would usually change the subject to what her grandkids were up to. I miss her, but she will always be in my heart.

Her Brother, Joe
