“ *I knew him as a spirited young man back in the late 60"s. My younger brother Bobby Shugart went to school with Johnny and Volney and I became friends with both as well as their little sister Sherri visiting them often during the summers back then at the Hughes family home on Allen Ave.
I lost track soon after the 70's started as life took me in a different direction and only learned this week from my cousin Larry Glover of Volney' s passing.
It's good to see from the outpouring on Facebook that so many lives were touched by him and he was surrounded by family .*

“ A spirited young man in his High School days back in the late 60's is what I remember of him. I used to visit his family in the company of my cousin Larry Glover and brother Bobby Shugart. We were all good friends back then and I was a kind of tag-a-long being a few years older. It's amazing to see what kind of life he made for himself as he grew older, one of responsibility and caring. I envy all who knew him in those days and wish them comfort today. Celebrate and remember him always.
