

Walter Thomas

August 16, 1940 - April 19, 2009

Walter Jay Thomas was born August 26, 1940 in Dallas County to Doratha Haswell and W.J. Thomas and died April 19, 2009. He lived his early years in Cedar Hill, Texas. He married Jean May in Sherman Texas in 1965. He worked in commercial construction in Dallas most of his adult life. When Walter and Jean moved to the Dresden area they bought the feed store. They made numerous friends who were the support system that was needed during his illness. He is preceded in death by his father and several aunts and uncles. He is survived by his wife Jean Thomas of Barry, his mother Doratha Thomas of Blooming Grove, sister Helen Hyden and husband Jim of Angus, brothers in law Dewayne May of Dallas, Clifton May of Artesia NM, nieces Wanda Christ, Cathy Shaw, nephew Russell Hyden. A special appreciation to Silver City Volunteer Fire Department, Bubba and Lisa Cottongame, Cedar Lake Hospice, Dr. Fink and staff at Baylor, First Baptist Church, family and friends. A Celebration of Walters life will be 1pm Saturday April 25, 2009. The informal service will be held at the Cross Roads Feed and Seed in Dresden with Rev. B. F. Risinger officiating. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, your church or the charity of your choice.

“ *Dear Jean,
I send my deepest sympathy to you and Walters family. I share your sorrow with you, and know there are no words that can bring you comfort at this time. I know Walter had a happy life because of all the love you gave him.
I feel blessed to have known him. Please let me know how I may support you through the coming weeks.
My Love and God Bless.*

“ Walter was a good friend that I grew to know in many afternoon talks at the feed store. Many an afternoon, I would stop by for horse and chicken feed and we would just sit and visit. I will miss my afternoon talks with Walter - he was a good man. I'll miss you my friend.
