“ Dear Family: What a pleasure it was for me to have been Ann's classmate in the 1958 class of FISD. Our sons grew up with her and Jack's children in school also and valued their friendships. She was a special person and will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time.

“ My strongest memory of Ann is her wonderful smile! In all the years that Rebecca & Nikki were growing up together, I cannot remember a time that she was not smiling, always upbeat & happy. Because of her deep faith in God & love for her family, she seemed totally content with Life. What an inspiration for us all!

*Love & prayers to all the family,
