“ When I think of Wiley it reminds me of the many hours he spent at the bank "over seeing" everything. He had such a kind and gentle soul. We last saw him after Thanksgiving in Palestine when we took Twila to treatment. We will miss seeing him but I am sure Twila was there to greet him into heaven. May you find joy and comfort in knowing he joins our love ones in a better place.

“ We had the great pleasure to not only have worked with Wiley at FSB-Fairfield, but to have been socially connected to the family. Wiley was like a father-figure to both of us, having lost our dads while we were in our twenties. He will be missed. Hugs, love, and prayers to Patsy, Patti and Link and their families.
