“ Ted,

I am so sorry to hear about your Dad. He is the 2nd of 14 grandchildren of Edwin R. and Clara V. Baker Glazener to die. Virginia Ruth was the first in December, 1946. He has been on my mind so much lately. I even drove by the cemetery in Streetman several months ago on my way home from Houston (doctor). I was surprised to learn that John Stephen had passed away in 2004. I used to baby-sit him and took him to Six Flags when he was 12. He was such a wonderful human being and so loving. I always enjoyed taking him places back then. Somehow we all lost touch except for the reunion in 1977 and the occasional funeral. I tried calling you and Billy Theo when mother passed away in August, of 2006. No answer either place. The last time I saw your dad was at Aunt Jeanne's funeral in Fairfield. I will miss him and I still miss your mother. They were bright spots in my childhood. Your mother always had a smile and words of encouragement. Your dad always had a joke and a story to tell. My dad, Travis, loved Bill like the son he never had...Bill and Keith. Your dad was always joking and laughing. When he came home from Korea, I wasn't sure how he would cope. But his outgoing personality and laughter got him, Buddy Clyde and Aunt June and his uncles and aunts and cousins through it. I was through Bonham about 3 weeks ago. I guess we didn't keep up as we should have. I will truly miss him and our prayers (cousins all) are with you and Dru and Virginia. I used to play with Virginia. I always thought that when I grew up I hoped I'd be as pretty as Linda and Virginia (I didn't know Sarah). They were beautiful women in spirit and outwardly also. I wish I could have been there, but physical limitations at this time keep my from being there. I truly hate it. Winnsboro isn't too far from New Boston (20 miles west of Texarkana). I would like for us to get together if at all possible. Again, my thoughts and prayers are with you and Dru. Love you, Mary Elizabeth
