“ My path had not crossed Bill's very often in recent years, but we were friends in high school and I have many fond memories of him and his wonderful personality.

Other friends who were closer to Bill have shared his recent history with me, and from their comments I know he was a good man who lived his life well, and that he will be missed by his loved ones. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ A lot of different emotions went through me when I found out about Bill's death. He and I spent many wonderful adventures throughout our lives. Thumbing our way to Galveston for splash day after graduating from high school. All the early cowboy games we went to after church on Sunday. He was truly a great and close friend. I will truly miss him. I know he is with his Lord and Savior. His faith was a center point of his life that he pointed out to me on our last few times together. My deepest sympathy to his family on his untimely death. May the Lord Jesus Christ give you comfort and understanding in the days to come.

“ Bill became a good friend to me in the last few years. I enjoyed his sense of humor, admired his faith and perseverance during his illnesses. I wish I had spent more time with him when we were younger. I thought of him this morning as I read the brief notice in the local paper and remembered his excitement at being baptised in the Jordan River in the Holy Land. He is truly home this morning.
