“ Mr Rasco or as we kids growing up around him called him Papa Billy. Papa Billy was cherished and loved by all whom met him. He had that certain something that touches your heart. Anf makes you feel like apart of the family. I wanted to say he played a big part in my childhood life. Not just because he was my 2 closest friends misty,and josh's grandfather, But also he gave me alot of good memories and lessons to carry with me as I got older. From the good, lets Misty,josh,Liz and Me check out the RV home ,and telling stoies, to the bad times of us kids down in the dicth vy the house and papa billy chasing out of there with a good talking to, or messing around with things we know we should Aint that right Josh...

well i know Papa Billy is still loved and cherished and will never beforgotten in my life nor us kids..... Thank you for letting be so close to the family and most of all papa billy

“ In the short time we have had to get you know Bill I can safely say it has been an honor and privilage to be able to call ourselves friends. Bill was a warm caring person who strongly believed in the value of family and friends. Although his calling home will be a hard time for us, we have to remember what a blessing it is form him. We will keep you all in our thoughts and prayers as you morn the loss of a great father,veteran and most of all friend.

God Bless!!
