“ Mike, Tommy and Allen. And all the Grandchildren. Sorry for your loss. Willie was a good person, I liked her. I remember when Emily was born in 1987. She was not a big baby, 4 lb 8 oz. I believe. They wouldn't release babies from the hospital if they weren't 5 lbs. Emily had trouble adapting, milk would not stay down. she lost a few more ounces. To 4 lb. 2 or 3 oz. They put IV's in her feet, one then the other. Made her feet sore and swollen. Willie came in to work, nights, in the maternity area. She started working with her, trying different things to get her to eat and it settle on her stomach. Something she provided worked, she took the IV out and Emily went up to 4 lb. 15 oz. and they let her out. I sent Willie a thank you note for that. I know she was just doing her job and did not expect thanks. But, I did it anyway. Odis.
