“ Esco and Wilma were our across the street neighbors when they lived on Lakewood in Corsicana. Dee and I were immediately drawn to their kindness and caring nature. We so enjoyed being neighbors with them. We were privileged to share our street with them. Their love for each shone brightly every day. It is heartwarming to know they are together again. We send love and best wishes to their family and friends. May God Bless you all.

“ I was blessed to be her Sunday School teacher at FBC. She loved the Lord, her Family and her Friends. Her “This is just how it is attitude “was based on her walk with the Lord, with a touch of Wilma Humor added. Thank you for sharing her with me before she moved to be with you.
