

Wilma Way

February 2, 1934 - November 13, 2021

Wilma was an exceptional homemaker that focused on nurturing and taking care of her children, Kevin and Debbie. She was always there for doctor's visits, sporting events, and the numerous school functions for her active children. Wilma introduced Kevin and Debbie to religion at an early age through the Lutheran Church, and continually reinforced proper moral and ethical values. Additionally, Wilma's cooking was unmatched as evidenced by the steady flow of friends surrounding the table at the Way house.

Wilma was born on February 2, 1934, to Erwin and Elsie Landers in Erie, Pennsylvania. Wilma graduated from Academy High School in Erie, Pennsylvania in 1953, and would marry the love of her life, Richard Way on February 2, 1957.

Wilma shared her passion for travel with her husband of 63 years, Richard, who preceded her in death. She would love to sit and share the details of a few of her favorite trips: a cruise around South America, a fun-filled wildlife safari in Africa, or the tour of India, Nepal and the Himalayas.

Wilma is survived by her children, Kevin Way of Pickerington, OH and Deborah Bonner and husband Aric of Corsicana, TX.; her grandchildren, Jessica Way of Waxahachie, TX, Austin Way of Scottsdale, AZ, Alexis Way, of Indianapolis, IN, and Gabriela Bonner of Corsicana, TX; and one Great-granddaughter Addilyn Bonner.
