“ To Peggy and Family,

I am truly sorry for your loss. Each one of you will be in my heart-felt thoughts and prayers.

Please find comfort in the fact that your mother touched many lives with her special Joy and Love while she walked this earth. I am one of those people blessed by knowing and experiencing your mother's special life. I will keep that experience with me in my continuing journey.

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss...She will always be remembered as you share the stories and the memories of how she lived her life and how very much she meant. May you find comfort and throughout this difficult time, may you also know the deep sympathy and concern that is felt for you and all your family. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Kenneth and the Howard family:
I'm so sorry about the loss of your mother, but you know she is in a better place. I would have been at the visitation, but I had to take Justice (our grandson) to the Childrens Hospital.
God Bless you all and cherish the memories of your mother and your family.

“ I will miss Wynona. We becamer re-acquainted when we were both on the CHS Class of 53 reunion committee together. She was a faithful contributor in planning and working on our reunions. She often talked about her family, whom she loved very much. My sincere condolences to the family.

“ Mom,

*Should You Go First
Should you go first and I remain
to walk the road alone,
I'll live in memories garden dear,
with happy days we've known.*

*In spring I'll wait for roses red,
when faded, the lilacs blue.
In early fall when brown leaves fall,
I'll catch a glimpse of you.*

*Should you go first and I remain,
for battle to be fought.
Each thing you've touched along the way
will be a hallowed spot.*

*I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile,
though blindly I may grope,
The memory of your helping hand will buoy me on with hope.*

*Should you go first and I remain,
one thing I'll have you do:
Walk slowly down that long long path,
for soon I'll follow you.*

*I want to know each step you take,
so I may take the same.
For someday down that lonely road you'll hear me call your name.*

“ We are so sorry to hear of her passing. She was a very sweet and dear person. I personally always enjoyed visiting with her when we went to Corsicana. I know we kinda lost touch with her, but I thought of her often. She will definitely be missed but I know she will be happy to be back with her first love, Bill. Good Bless her and her family.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

The Lord carefully watches over the death of his beloved, it matters deeply to him.
