They were preceded in death by Dustin Smothermon (Uncle), Steve Smothermon (Maternal Grandfather), Bill & Connie Mimms (Paternal Grandparents), and Otis & Sue Long (Maternal Great Grandparents).

They left behind Erica Markham (Mother), Kevin Markham (Stepfather), Siblings are as follows: Marissa Milazzo, Miranda Milazzo, Ezekiel Milazzo, Alexander Maddox, Raeleigh Kendziora, Merrienne Markham, and Carl Markham. Blake and Kayli Olsen (Uncle and Aunt), Nancy Smothermon (Maternal grandmother), numerous cousins and Joshua also leaves behind Gaby De La Rosa (girlfriend).

Life can be a scary thing but ever since Joshua became a big brother to Xzavier, neither one had to go this life alone. Their given roles were perfect showing us all what brotherly love looks like. Joshua was the epitome of a big brother, leading the way for all his siblings and never too far from Xzavier. Joshua never met a stranger as he had a smile and a hello for everyone. Xzavier always had plenty to say speaking movies and music fluently. Xzavier always kind and took on life with childlike exuberance, was the one to truly teach others about how to look at life. Both of their smiles infectious, they truly brought joy to those around them. Rarely apart because brothers stick together. Joshua was there to lead Xzavier to the other side where there is no doubt, they are riding zebras on the beach and then going fishing with their Uncle Dustin. Until we meet again may we never stop sharing the joy these boys provided through memories, laughter, and love. Godspeed, little man. Sweet dreams little man. My love will fly to you each night on angel's wings. The viewing and funeral for both boys will be on February 19th at Community Chapel 1117 N 13th St. The viewing will be from noon to 2pm and the funeral will follow at 2:00pm.
