“ I grew up with Zo Ann in the Retreat/Pickett area. She and my sister, Mary Martin, were good friends. I have thought of Zo Ann often, but had not seen her in a long while. My mental picture of Zo Ann is now, and always has been, of her on horseback. She did a lot of riding in her young years and my dad once hired her to ride some of our horses.....not to break them, but just to teach them some basics that they needed to learn. I send my love and prayers to Zo Ann's family. I knew all the Farmer Family and still can see her dad passing our house, further north on Hwy. 709, every morning about 9 a.m. with a pick up load of milk . Owning a dairy was not the easiest of jobs, for sure. You never got to take a vacation, unless you had a good person to replace you. I know that Douglas was that person and he worked a long time at it as did his dad. Zo Ann's mother was a very sweet lady as well. Good family for sure. Glad that I got to know them all.
